

Joe Bircher is a partner with Walter Robbs Callahan & Pierce Architects, PA in Winston Salem. He earned a Bachelor of Art in Architecture degree from UNCC in 1983 and received a Master of Architecture degree from Columbia University in 1986. He interned with Skidmore Owings and Merrill in the New York office for over two years before coming to North Carolina in 1988. "I have chosen to serve on the community appearance board because, as an architect, I have a keen interest in the built environment surrounding me and feel that I can serve the community by working with others to enhance the beauty of Winston Salem."
