

BULK CONTAINER SUPERVISOR

DEFINITION OF WORK

Under immediate supervision, performs difficult technical work in supervising crews engaged in the collection, transportation and disposal of containerized refuse; handles billing; does related work as required.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

Plans routes and schedules for all vehicles assigned to bulk container solid waste collection; makes periodic inspections of container collection points to assure that proper standards are met; recommends corrective action and changes in schedules when needed; coordinates material recycling programs; enforces safety regulations; trains new employees; investigates complaints; reports need for maintenance and repair of equipment; makes recommendations on personnel transactions; maintains daily records and may prepare periodic reports; contacts owners of new apartments, businesses, etc. about arrangement for refuse containers and collection procedures; acts in absence of Sanitation Operation Supervisor. Oversees accurate billing and takes corrective action for non-paying customers.

EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS

Education and Experience: Any combination of education and experience equivalent to a high school diploma and considerable experience in the loading, transportation and dumping of materials.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: Knowledge of the safe operation of equipment and of safety precautions necessary in loading and trucking; ability to plan and lay out the work of a number of crews; ability to supervise and train men; ability to understand and carry out written and oral directions; familiarity with the City collecting and disposal practices and procedures and with the City street system; ability to deal effectively with the public; reviews all site plans for new developments; possesses computer skills.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT

Possession of a valid North Carolina driver's license.